Capstone Project 1: Data Story

The best approach to determine who would be approved for a loan.

What is the level of importance placed on each variable in loan status determination?

What's the correlation between loan amount and income?

Are you more likely to be approved for a loan if you are:

- married?
- more educated?
- less dependents?
- live in urban areas?
- employed instead of self-employed?